Administrative Reports

- Primary
 - The school year is off to a great start! The children are learning ROAR behavior and what "school" is. Curriculum Nights are held later in the month at Primary because students are still enrolling. The Green Apple Day of service is coming up which is always fun for Primary.
- Elementary
 - The school got a facelift over the summer to help integrate East & West. The new pick up & drop off line seems to cause less congestion on Gages Lake Rd. Popsicles with the Principals were well attended.
- Intermediate
 - Principal Sheldon did a webinar for cybersafety on cell phones which was well attended. Various stencils were used to paint play areas on the playground (4 square, etc.). A seemingly popular stenciled out area is conflict resolution space with options on how to handle an argument while on the playground.
- Middle
 - The Middle school students have been going over the basics of being back in school & PBIS. They are starting a cultural committee in order to help cultivate a sense of belonging.
- Superintendent
 - Lauren Campanella is scheduling safety drills for all of the buildings. Safe schools week is in October & there will be a festivity held. More to follow! Shield testing has resumed in schools. A text message notification program will soon be up and running for the district!

Community Update

- Adam Krieger-Warren Township is back in the Middle Schools' health classrooms. Therapists from the Township are also going into the schools to help students who are unable to get to therapists. Lots of workshops are coming up!

The meeting was adjourned at 10:48am.
